

Handwritten text in the top left corner, possibly a title or page number, including the word "Pavane".

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring multiple staves with notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, and a 3/4 time signature is visible in the upper left. The score is written in a historical style, possibly from the 18th or 19th century. A section of the score is highlighted with a rectangular box, containing the handwritten instruction leggero e stacc. (light and staccato). The paper shows signs of age, including stains and foxing.

Empty musical staves at the bottom of the page, consisting of two systems of five-line staves each, with no notation present.
